CAUSE

On June 27, 2008, Ms. Strickland appeared in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas before the Honorable Melba Marsh and pled guilty to the reduced charge of Attempted Forgery-a first degree misdemeanor, under Docket #: B 0803038. On July 16, 2008, the offender appeared in the above court on the above charge and was placed on community control for five years. Additionally, the offender also appeared before Judge Melba Marsh in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas and pled guilty on June 27, 2008, to the fifth degree felony charges of Count One-Forgery and Count Two-Theft, under Docket #: B 0800506-A. Count One involved the offender's facilitation of a fraud on September 26, 2007, by uttering a U.S. Postal Money Order in the amount of $850.00 that she knew was forged. Count Two charged that on September 26, 2007, Ms. Strickland obtained a United States money order in the amount of $500 or more that belonged either to a male victim or to National City Bank. Counts Three-Six under this docket were dismissed. On July 16, 2008, Ms. Strickland appeared in the above court on the above two counts under docket number #: B0800506-A, at which time she was sentenced to two five year terms of community control. She was also ordered to make total restitution for both cases B0800506-A and B0803038.

This officer does not condone the offender's above criminal conduct. Additionally, revocation of supervised release would be reasonable under these circumstances. However, Ms. Strickland is the single mother of two small children, Blessing, age six, and Ke'ron, age five. Their father is not in their lives at all. Ms. Strickland's sister, is not reliable and her children were removed from her care a number of years ago due to her problems with substance abuse. Lastly, the offender successfully completed two previous terms of home confinement. These included a six month term of home confinement with electronic monitoring on August 29, 2002, and a ten month term of home confinement without electronic monitoring on May 8, 2007. It is for these reasons that this officer respectfully requests that the Court consider this request for modifications of the conditions of supervised release.

On August 5, 2008, this officer spoke with Ms. Strickland to discuss the proposed modification. This officer explained her rights to counsel and a modification hearing in detail. Strickland stated she understood her rights completely, and wanted to waive those rights because she was in agreement with the addition of the condition. She then signed the waiver form.

Ms. Strickland's defense counsel, Mr. Ransom Hudson, Esquire, advised the probation officer that he had no objection to the proposed modification.

Based on these factors, this officer respectfully recommends the Court grant the proposed modification.
